I have agreed to be a presenter/speaker for the above Event. I understand the Event and my performance and/or delivery of my presentation, including Q&A, and/or related presentation materials such as handouts, slides, summaries, or other reference materials (collectively, "Presentation Materials") will be photographed, videotaped, recorded, and/or distributed in various formats by Apollo Graph, Inc. or its successors ("Apollo") to Event registrants and attendees, for their personal and professional reference, for archival purposes, for Apollo's internal business use, and to promote this or future similar events held by Apollo (collectively, the "Permitted Purposes"). Use or distribution of the Presentation Materials for the Permitted Purposes may occur, without limitation, via shared folders, email, posting on the Event platform, streaming via videoconferencing, posting on Apollo's corporate website or Apollo's social media pages, or webcasts and podcasts published by Apollo, and any other communications medium currently existing or later created.

I give my permission and authorize Apollo, to videotape, audiotape, photograph, record, edit or otherwise reproduce the Presentation Materials and to use my name, biographical information, business title, voice and likeness to identify me as the person delivering the Presentation Materials during the Event, and to use them in the formats noted above, solely for the Permitted Purposes stated above. Apollo does not obtain any other rights to use or exploit my name, biographical information, business title, voice or likeness for any other purpose.

I warrant and represent to Apollo that the Presentation Materials are either my own original works of authorship, or that I have secured all necessary rights, clearances, permissions, licenses, and/or other authorizations from third parties (including, if applicable, my employer), to grant Apollo the rights in and to the Presentation Materials in this Consent & Release on a worldwide, royalty-free, and perpetual basis. I understand and agree that the Presentation Materials will not be treated confidentially and will be disclosed without restriction for the Permitted Purposes. I hereby waive my right to enforce applicable moral rights, rights of privacy, or rights of publicity vested in me in the Presentation Materials to the extent that Apollo complies with the terms of this Content & Release and uses the same solely for the Permitted Purposes. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Apollo, its employees and representatives against any and all claims arising out of the Presentation Materials, including, but not limited to, claims of copyright infringement, defamation, and misrepresentation. I declare I have read the above, fully understand its meaning and effect, and agree to be bound by it in consideration of the premises set forth herein.

This Consent & Release is effective when signed by me and will be subject to the laws of the State of California without regard to its choice of law provisions.
